Pulpit Rock

Hikingtrip to the Pulpit Rock 06.09.08

The tour starts with ferry from Stavanger to Tau, passing small islands along the way. The ferry takes half an hour and you will be served lunch on board. From Tau the coach brings you to the Prekestol-lodge. The lodge has a beautiful view over the lake Refvatnet, and it is the starting point for the hike to the Pulpit Rock. You follow a well marked trail from the Prekestol-lodge lodge through a variety of mountain landscapes.

This pronounced mountain formation hangs 600 meters over the Lysefjord and has a fantastic panorama over the fjord and surrounding mountains.

It should be noted that this is quite a demanding trip suitable for people used to hiking in woods and mountains. You need proper shoes and clothes and do not forget a packed lunch and water.

Duration 8 timer (total from Stavanger and return)

Departure from University by bus at 13.00

Lunch time on the ferry
