

Program

Conference Landscapes of War and Fear

(AD 600-1350)

4-5th November, Oslo, Norway

Professorboligen (4th) and Foredragssalen (Historisk Museum) (5th)

ARKEOLOGISK
MUSEUM
Universitetet i Stavanger

Tuesday 4 November

0900-0930 Registration

Reactions to fear

Chair: Thorsten Lemm

0930-1000 Introduction. Reactions to fear. Beacons as physical expression of fear?
Marie Ødegaard, Museum of Archaeology-University of Stavanger

1000-1030 Fear, Trade, or Power? Rethinking Estonia's Coastal Hillforts
Marika Mägi, Tallinn University

1030-1045 Short break

1045-1115 Echoes of Fear and War: Defensive Landscapes and Cultural Memory in the Medieval Borderlands of Northern Croatia
Sanja Baškarad and Jasmina Jurković Petras, Virovitica City Museum

1115-1145 Utterances before and after battle: Psychology and Performance
Caitlin Ellis, University of Oslo

1145-1245 Lunch

Chair: Charlotte Hedenstierna-Jonson

1245-1315 Landscapes of defence around the Dee and Mersey
Clare Downham, University of Liverpool

1315-1345 Fortresses of Fear: Western Slavic Strongholds as the Architecture of Terror
Leszek Gardela, Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität, Munich

1345-1400 Short break

1400-1430 Anxious Sentries or Centuries of Anxiety? How landscape and laws enabled medieval coastal security on the Isle of Man
Andrew Johnson, Manx National Heritage

1430-1500 *War and fear on Scandinavia's southern boundary. Three case studies on late Iron
Age large-scale defence systems and fortifications*
Thorsten Lemm, ZEIZA

1500-1515 Short break

Chair: Markus Nilsen

1515-1545 Fear and castles: Responses to the Hungarians in the east Frankish realm
Thomas Kohl, Universität Passau

1545-1615 Trygge – the Fortress So Large It Was Overlooked
Leif Plith Lauritsen, Museum Lolland Falster

1615-1630 Short break

Socio-economic resources

Chair: Marie Ødegaard

1630-1700 Defensive features in Western Zealand
Trine Borake, Museum Vestsjælland

1700-1730 The cost of defence: Anglo-Saxon fortifications in the Viking Age
Stuart Brookes, University College London

1730-1750 Concluding discussion

1830/1900 Dinner

Wednesday 5 November

Socio-economic resources continue

Chair: Stuart Brookes

0900-0930 *Money to Burn: The Economic and Social Costs of Maintaining a
Medieval Beacon System in Namdalen, Central Norway*
Markus Nilsen, Museum of Archaeology-Uni of Stavanger

0930-1000 Movement Matters – Buildings of Peripatetic Kings of 13th century Norway
Kristian Reinfjord, Anno Museum

1000-1030 Fire, Sword and Gjald: Plunder and Violence against the Peasantry during the Norwegian Civil Wars 1130–1240 and its socio-economic significance
Hugo Small, University of Cambridge

1030-1045 Short break

1045-1115 Controlling and defending Stadt in the Viking Age
Anne Irene Riisøy, Universitetet i Sørøst-Norge

Social transformations

Chair: Marie Ødegaard

- 1115-1145 Guarding the land of the Burgendans - Fortifications on the island of Bornholm
Laurine Albris Saxo-Institute, Copenhagen University
- 1145-1215 Observations on social architecture in the face of warfare and threat
Charlotte Hedenstierna-Jonson, Uppsala University
- 1215-1315 Lunch
- 1315-1345 The Beacons of Bornholm
Anders Pihl, The National Museum of Denmark
- 1345-1415 Kingship, militarism and myth-making: landscape, namescapes and long-term change in defensive landscapes in first-millennium AD Ireland
Patrick Gleeson, Queen's University Belfast
- 1415-1430 Short break
- Chair: Thorsten Lemm
- 1430-1500 Traces of war and fear in the Danish borderland on the transition from tribe to state
Anne Nørgård Jørgensen, The National Museum of Denmark
- 1500-1530 Viking Age sea-routes along the south coast of Britain
Claire Stokes, University of the Highlands and Islands
- 1530-1545 Short break
- 1545-1615 A (lack of) wartime defence? Scotland's urban communities and their response to war during the Second Scottish War of Independence (1332-1357)
Iain A. MacInnes, University of the Highlands and Islands (UHI)
- 1615-1645 Landscapes of fear and frontier fortifications: the case of Ciepłe in Eastern Pomerania (10th–11th centuries)
Stawomir Wadył and Jan Gryz, University of Warsaw
- 1645-1710 Closing discussion